Customer Reviews

Very interesting take on Virtual Assistants and how to free up time and money by utilizing them. Check out the notable tips on other ways to increase your effectiveness and subsequent revenue in your own real estate business. This book really vaults the theory of "work smarter, not harder" into a practical reality - or realty (pun intended!).

great tool and the author are AMAZING people! I have several VA's that do different things for me from online marketing management, office management, personal stuff, answering phones, websites. Best way to run an office and the most cost effective.

This book changed my life. I have read many real estate books in my life but this one is a must have. The information contained within is simple, informative and essential if you want to be a success in the wizz bang, live on the razors edge, laugh in the face of death world of real estate. I highly recommend that you purchase this book sooner than later and learn the skills and techniques to change your real estate careers forever!!!

Written in a clear and concise manner for understanding how to take your business to the next level! Definitely a business resource I will use many, many times!

Great read. Great info. Hiring VAs is always something I wanted to do but was too nervous. I'm excited about the immediate growth this will bring for my business!

This is a must-read for anyone, novice and expert alike, who seeks to excel in a real estate career.

A must have for all Real Estate Agents ! The Lackeys are experts in their field

What a great book! Easy to read with straight forward information.
