A Small Town In Germany: A BBC Full-Cast Radio Drama (BBC Radio)

Synopsis

A BBC Radio full-cast dramatization of John le Carré's gripping tale of espionage and double dealing. Missing: one junior diplomat and 43 of the British Embassy's most confidential files. The timing is alarmingly significant: with neo-Nazi riots and radical student demonstrations, the threat to Germany's security is all too apparent. Britain's own Alan Turner is sent in, with instructions to tread carefully at all costs. But will he find the missing man and the files before the political situation erupts?

Customer Reviews

A low profile clerk in the Embassy goes missing, together with a Green File apparently packed with secrets. The low profile was deliberate. Where is he and what was he up to? Another trip into the "Secret World". Great Le Carre and a superb production. Don Wardell
